KORONY A.L. POST HOLDS VA HOLIDAY PARTY

The Theodore Korony American Legion Post #253 visited the James J. Peters VA Hospital to host a holiday party for the patients there recently. Among the dignitaries attending the festivities in Kingsbridge Heights were Senator Jeff Klein and Jim Mullankey, state commander of the New York Catholic War Veterans.

(Above) Members of the Theodore Korony American Legion Post #253 gathered at the James J. Peters Veterans Administration hospital in Kingsbridge to spread holiday cheer for patients.

Photo courtesy of Korony American Legion Post #253

(1-r) Judy Lanci, Santa Claus and Colleen McCarthy spread holiday cheer.

Photo courtesy of Korony American Legion Post #253

OLYMPIC SWIMMER VISITS BRONXWORKS

Olympic Swimmer Anthony Ervin and members of Imagine Swimming, an organization that provides swimming lessons to children and advocates for the sport, held a clinic at BronxWorks’ McLaughlin Community Center on the Grand Concourse on Sunday, December 20.

BronxWorks Blue Waves Swim Team did some dry land stretches before heading to the pool.

Photo courtesy of BronxWorks

SANTA BRINGS GIFTS TO ALLERTON YOUNGSTERS

Santa Claus paid a visit to The Sanz banquet hall in Allerton on Saturday, December 19 to meet and give gifts to local children for the holiday season. The event was sponsored by the Allerton International Merchants Association.

Photo by Miriam Ouel

Olympic swimming medal winner Anthony Ervin (c, standing) speaks to the children at BronxWorks.

Photo courtesy of BronxWorks

Damien Velasquez and his sister, Angelys Velasquez were excited to meet jolly old Saint Nick.