

New York Daily News
March 18, 2010

BRONX — BronxWorks, a Bronx-based human-service organization and settlement house, will host a 2010 census public outreach event on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The event, at the BronxWorks community center, located at 1130 Grand Concourse at 166th St., will feature live entertainment as well as information on the census.

An accurate census count is critical to ensuring proportionate political representation and fair funding levels for communities.