Bronxworks launches Hippy Scholarship

BronxWorks (formerly the Citizens Advice Bureau) and the New York Section of the National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW-NYS) are pleased to announce the creation of the 2010 Jacqueline Schneider Scholarship Award. To be eligible to apply for the scholarship, one must have been a child enrolled in the BronxWorks Home Instruction Program for Preschool Youngsters (HIPPY) between 1992 and 1995. Applications must be completed by youngsters, not their parents, guardians, or other adults.

BronxWorks and NCJW-NYS will select two awardees. Each will receive a one-year, $2,500 scholarship to help cover college costs, including tuition, books, computer hardware or software purchases, and other fees.

Applications must be completed and submitted to the Townsend Avenue office of BronxWorks (located at the lower level of 1477 Townsend Avenue) by Friday, April 3. Incomplete or late applications will not be reviewed.

Scholarship winners will be announced in May or June. For more information about the award, please contact Ms. Judith Santos at (718) 588-3836 or JSantos@bronxworks.org. Media representatives should contact Mr. Ken Small at (646) 393-4009 or KSmall@bronxworks.org to learn more about this effort and other BronxWorks initiatives.
